

Subject: Drama

Department Staff – Miss L Mack, Ms A Lisk, Mr S Mills

Year 9 - Autumn Term 2010

Contents: what you will study

In Year 9 the work is designed to consolidate skills introduced in Year 7 and 8 and introduce new skills, drama techniques and concepts. You will be introduced to more challenging stimuli, issues and genres in drama. You will be expected to work with a greater level of independence in the devising and staging process and take bigger risks with your ideas.

National Curriculum levels at which you will work

None applicable

Skills which you will develop this term:

You will be able to develop the techniques of performance which will equip you for GCSE Drama including:

Experimenting with a variety of dramatic styles, techniques and genres.

Devise dramas with awareness of style structure, contrast and atmosphere.

Use a range of texts to inform your work.

Develop a variety of different styles of performance.

Assessment: how you will be tested this term

Your work will be regularly assessed through both peer and self-evaluation. There will also be on-going assessment by the teacher in accordance with school and department policy.

Equipment which you will need for this terms work

Pen and Paper.

Enthusiasm and open mind

Key words which you will need to learn for this term's work

Monologue

Semiotics

Cue Sheet

Imagery

Indexes

Commedia

Naturalism

Documentary Drama

Juxtaposition

Texts

Marking the Moment

Surreal

Subject: Drama

Department Staff – Miss L Mack, Ms A Lisk, Mr S Mills

Year 9 - Spring Term 2011

Contents: what you will study

A variety of texts chosen by your teacher.

You will learn how to interpret these texts and how to use them to explore ideas and feelings.

National Curriculum levels at which you will work

None applicable

Skills which you will develop this term:

You will develop the skills needed to be successful at GCSE: in particular, this term you will focus on texts (see above) and learn how to use your knowledge of drama so choose appropriate forms.

Assessment: how you will be tested this term

Your work will be regularly assessed through both peer and self-evaluation. There will also be on-going assessment by the teacher in accordance with school and department policy.

Equipment which you will need for this term's work

Pen and Paper.

Enthusiasm and open mind

Key words which you will need to learn for this term's work

Form

Content

Stimulus

shape

Interpretation

naturalism

symbolism

focus

Subject: Drama

Department Staff – Miss L Mack, Ms A Lisk, Mr S Mills

Year 9 - Summer Term 2011

Contents: what you will study

A variety of texts chosen by your teacher. These will include play texts.

You will learn how to interpret these texts and how to use them to explore ideas and feelings. You will also learn how to communicate others' ideas through the medium of drama.

National Curriculum levels at which you will work

None applicable

Skills which you will develop this term:

You will develop the skills needed to be successful at GCSE: in particular, this term you will focus on texts (see above) and learn how to use your knowledge of drama so choose appropriate forms.

Assessment: how you will be tested this term

You will be assessed by class evaluation, teacher evaluation and performance evaluation in accordance with school policy.

Equipment which you will need for this term's work

None applicable

Key words which you will need to learn for this term's work

Form	Content	Stimulus	shape
Interpretation	naturalism	symbolism	focus